

Dear Friends,

Greetings from the Indian Journal of Science and Nature (IJSN)!

We are pleased to announce the launch of our new peer-reviewed journal, Indian Journal of Science and Nature (IJSN), dedicated to promoting high-quality research and knowledge sharing in the fields of science, technology, and environmental studies.

We cordially invite you to submit your original research papers, review articles, or case studies for publication in our upcoming issue. The journal welcomes interdisciplinary contributions from researchers, academicians, and professionals across various domains of science and nature.

Submission Guidelines:

Authors can submit their manuscripts via email to support@iasn.in or through our website <https://iasn.in/paper-submission/>.

We would be delighted to feature your valuable work in our forthcoming issue and look forward to your contribution to making IJSN a leading platform for scientific advancement.

Warm regards,
